Family Funhouse

ARROYO GRANDE, CALIFORNIA

4,085 SF | 2011

The Family Funhouse is built for making memories. The Las Ventanas home features a pool and covered patio to encourage outdoor living. Thoughtful design maximizes ocean and valley views. The Abbott|Reed team led construction efforts from the ground up. Project managers ensured special amenities were designed and brought to life with precision, from construction of an art studio and spacious garage to the installation of radiant floor heating.
